A Note from the Editor

By Alaina McCallum

As 2017 comes to a close, this latest edition of the Nantesense serves as a reflection of this year's activities, as well provide information about upcoming events.

Currently, SNSCA has half a dozen annual events for membership to participate in: the crêpe dinner, French Fest, Nantes Park cleanup, SIFF movies, summer picnic, and the Annual General Meeting. In addition to these annual events, the Association is continually working to expand local cultural activities and strengthen involvement with Nantes.

On behalf of the Board, I want to extend a thank you for your continual support. The Association looks forward to seeing you at future events! Bonne année 2018!

La Chandeleur

On February 12th, we held our annual crêpe dinner at the Hangar Café in Georgetown. The food and hospitality was impeccable. Stacey Jehlik, International Affairs Director at City of Seattle, come to the event and shared with the membership about her role in supporting Seattle's 21 sister cities.

This year in celebration of la Chandeleur, SNSCA will again hold the crêpe dinner at the Hangar Café on Sunday, February 11th. More details are to come.

French Fest

The Seattle Center hosts a myriad of cultural events throughout the year. However, on Sunday, March 19th, Seattle celebrated la Francophonie with French Fest. Visitors to the Seattle-Nantes booth learned more about the Association by talking to members and participating a "Do you know Nantes?" quiz. Children colored images of Nantes such as the elephant from les Machines de l'île. Also, visitors bought French books to help support our scholarship program.

Nantes Park Cleanup

In celebration of Earth Day, members gathered at Nantes Park on April 29th to tend to the weeds and beautify the park. The weather was nice, and we were able to remove weeds from the flowerbeds and the pathway.

The next time you are in West Seattle, feel free to stop by Nantes Park at 51st and Admiral Way.

Enjoying French Films

The Seattle International Film Festival takes place throughout May and June, SNSCA helped sponsor three French films: The Midwife, The Odyssey, and My Journey through French Cinema. As part of our sponsorship, we received ten tickets to each showing. Members were able to enjoy French cinema in good company. SNSCA will again sponsor SIFF films in the spring; we hope to see at one of the screenings.

Scholarship Recipients

Following interviews in May, the Scholarship Committee was proud to announce three deserving scholarship recipients thanks to your generous donations. Marsella Quinones from the University of Washington received the Goldmark Scholarship. Laura Phillips from Seattle Pacific University received the Seattle-Nantes Scholars Scholarship. Sophia Mahr from Pacific Lutheran University received the Frances Bennett Scholarship.

To learn more about our scholarship program visit our website at www.seattle-nantes.org/scholarships.

Larry Laffrey presents the scholarship check to Marsella Quinones.

Monthly Board Meetings

The Board of SNSCA meets monthly to discuss local activities and work on strengthening the relationship between Seattle and Nantes. In general, the Board convenes on the first Wednesday of the month at the Greenwood Library; see the website to confirm the meeting location. If you are interested in joining the Board, contact us at seattlenantessca@gmail.com and come to a board meeting to learn more.

WWI Project

In conjunction with The Bridge, a French celebration of the 100th anniversary of the US entry into WWI, SNSCA compiled war stories and images. Susan Kegel edited a newsletter from which Tom Waite created a poster that he presented to Nantes-Seattle-Jacksonville Sister City Association. The poster was displayed on a cruise along the Loire River and a sequential event honoring the US entry in the Great War. The Nantais were very appreciative the poster, which is currently housed in the Maison des États-Unis in Nantes.

This project is a wonderful example of one of the many ways we continue to strengthen our partnership with Nantes. The contents of the poster are visible in the special edition of the Nantesense from June 2017. The newsletter consists of stories of men who served in France in the infantry, in field hospitals, and in veterinary hospitals.

Summer Picnic

On July 16th, members celebrated Bastille Day with a summer picnic and barbecue on the shore of Lake Washington. On the beautiful Sunday, members met at Madrona Park. The picnic is a delightful annual event that allows members to enjoy good food and company. It was great to have scholarship recipients Marsella Quinones and Laura Phillips as well as new member Patricia Smith attended the event in addition to longtime members. Attendees brought delicious food to share and something for themselves to barbecue. We thank Tom Redding for always helping to keep the coals hot for grilling.

Annual General Meeting

On Sunday, November 12th, the Annual General Meeting was held at Zouave Restaurant in the Ravenna neighborhood. The ambiance and food was excellent.

Meghan Schumacher, French teacher at West Seattle High School, and French student Camille from the town of La Ferté-Bernard were our special guests for the evening. Meghan spoke about the Passepartout program, which is a cultural and educational program based on reciprocity between two schools, one in Washington State and one in the region of Nantes. Camille spoke about her time so far in Seattle. She arrived just before Halloween and departed after Thanksgiving. She was hosted by a West Seattle student of whom she will host in the spring when the Seattleite goes to France to partake in the other half of the exchange.

Larry Laffrey led the election of the board members. Three board members were re-elected for a two-year term: Jean-Loup Baer, Margaret Johnson, and Alaina McCallum. In December, Michelle Beckman was appointed to the Board by a unanimous vote from board members. She was again elected to the Board by the membership.

SNSCA Cinerama

Come enjoy our first movie event on Sunday, January 21, 2018 from 1-4pm in West Seattle.

Please bring one or more French movies. We will vote on which one to watch. Bring family, friends, and a French-inspired finger food dish or drink to share. We will provide plates, cutlery, glasses, and napkins.

Thank you to Patricia Smith for hosting this event in her condo's community room.

Please contact Susan Kegel (susankegel@gmail.com) to let us know you are coming, what you are bringing, and find out the address.
